

SDHC Releases Special Edition of One Book South Dakota

South Dakota Humanities Council has been working with Penguin Group to produce a special edition copy of this year's One Book South Dakota, The Journey of Crazy Horse: A Lakota History by Joseph Marshall III. The edition will feature the South Dakota Center for the Book logo on the front cover and a "2011 One Book South Dakota Selection" banner across the top. That way, you'll know it's official! The special edition will also include text on the back cover describing the One Book program, providing contact information for SDHC, and inviting the reader to the South Dakota Festival of Books. The special edition is a great method for getting SDHC's message out to the dedicated individuals reading 2011's One Book South Dakota. For more information on how you can get involved in a One Book South Dakota discussion in your area, please check out our programs and events calendar. For a complete listing of One Book South Dakota selections from the program's inception, please check out the "Past Selections" tab on the One Book South Dakota page. Stay tuned for more information on how SDHC is planning to share this edition of the book with American Indian students throughout the state.
